UGC orders online portal for caste complaints

ENS @Coimbatore

THE University Grants Commission has asked colleges and universities to create a separate page on their website for lodging of complaints related to caste discrimination. A complaints register must be placed in the registrar's office, in the case of universities, and principal's office, in the case of colleges, for such complaints.

UGC also asked institutions to take prompt action against erring officials in case of such complaints. In a letter written to vice-chancellors of various universities, UGC Secretary Rajnish Jain has advised institutions to be more sensitive in dealing with such cases. "The move will encourage victims to come forward and lodge complaints," says Bharathair University SC/ST Teachers' and Staff Welfare Association president M Ilanchelian.

Bills on quota, medical education, tabled in LS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

TWO Bills including the Indian Medical Council (Amendment) Bill, 2019 and Central Education Institutions (Reservation in Teachers' Cadre) Bill, 2019 were introduced in the Lok Sabha on Thursday.

The first Bill will ensure transparency, accountability and quality in the governance of medical education in the country. The second one seeks to allow filling up of more than 7,000 existing vacancies by direct recruitment in accordance with a new quota system in institutions of higher education.

The Lok Sabha also took up some other Bills for discussion including the Aadhaar Bill on Thursday.

The House discussed and passed the Homeopathy Central Council (Amendment) Bill on Thursday. The Bill seeks to amend the Act to re-constitute the Central Council within two years from the date of its supersession.

The Indian Medical Council (Amendment) Bill, 2019, introduced by Minister of State for Health Ashwini Chubey, sought to replace the Indian Medical Council (Amendment) Second Ordinance.

As per the Bill, during next two years, the Board of Governors (BoG) will exercise powers and functions of MCI as assigned under the IMC Act, 1956. The number of members in the BoG will be increased from existing 7 to 12.

Many important Bills will come up for discussion on Friday and Monday. The BJP has issued a three-line whip to all its members in the Lok Sabha to be present in the House.

The Trinamool MPs urged the Centre to clear the resolution passed by West Bengal Assembly to change the state's name to Bengal.
